SECTION I - INSTRUCTIONS

An amendment to the Gun Control Act of 1968 (18 U.S.C.922) makes it a felony for anyone who has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence to ship, transport possess, or receive firearms or ammunition. It is also a felony for any person to sell or otherwise dispose of a firearm to any person so convicted.

Convictions of crimes of domestic violence do not include summary court-martial convictions, the imposition of nonjudicial punishment (Article 15, UCMJ), or deferred prosecutions (or similar alternative disposition in civilian courts. Furthermore, person shall not be considered as having committed a "crime of domestic violence" for purposes of the firearms restriction of the Gun Control Act unless all of the following elements are present:

- (1) the person was convicted of a crime;
- (2) the offense has as its factual basis the use or attempted use of physical force, or threatened use of a deadly weapon;
- (3) the convicted offender was at the time of the offense:
 - (a) a current or former spouse, parent or guardian of the victim
 - (b) a person with whom the victim shared a child in common,
 - (c) a person who was cohabiting with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse, parent, or guardian, or

(d) a person who was similarly situated to a spouse, parent, or guardian of the victim;

(4) the convicted offender was represented by counsel, or knowingly and intelligently waived the right to counsel;

(5) if entitled to have the case tried by jury, the case was actually tried by jury or the person knowingly and intelligently waived the right to have the case tried by jury;

(6) the conviction has not been expunged or set aside, or the convicted offender has not been pardoned for the offense or had civil rights a restored, unless the pardon, expungement, or restoration of civil rights provides that the person may not ship, transport, possess or receive firearms.

If you have ever received a domestic violence conviction (1) you may not possess any firearm or ammunition; and (2) you must return any Government issued firearm or ammunition to the Chief Security Officer or immediate supervisor. Furthermore, any previously issued authorization by the agency to possess a firearm or ammunition is revoked.

If you have any questions, or you are uncertain if you have such a conviction, you may wish to contact Legal Affairs Office (LAO) , if eligible, or a private attorney, at your own expense.
